

Concluding “Their Journey: Why We Became Feminists” Campaign

Statement – 10 December 2020 - <http://nazra.org/en/node/724>

On the last day of the 16 Days Campaign Against Gender-Based Violence, Nazra for Feminist Studies is closing “Their Journey” Campaign, that was launched with the beginning of the international campaign, at November 25th, 2020 to re-highlight the lives and experiences of those who chose to combat this violence through their independent discourse and their struggle in personal and public spheres, succeeding to create a movement towards freedom, justice, equality and addressing the sexual violence as an urgent issues within a society that is practicing multiple forms of violence against its women.

They should be proud about their journey, when they developed awareness, they faced challenges, they paid for it, they struggled and they achieved gains worthy to be documented.

#TheirJourney